

Klove is very important to my community. They announce events that are happening in the community for non-profit organizations. They also announce upcoming events such as concerts and events.

The effect on my community would be devastating if LPFM broadcastings displace FM programming. We would not be able to receive the encouraging music we now enjoy. Klove is an inspiration to our community. In a world filled with hate we need more loving encouragement through our airways.